We were mistaken last week when we stated that there was no observance of Decoration Day in Salina. A number of ladies went quietly out to Gypsum Hill Cemetery and decorated in a very handsome manner, the graves of A. S. Norton, G. G. Lowe and other soldiers. This unostentations ceremonial is greatly to be commended, and speaks volumes for the patriotism, affection and delicacy of those who engaged in it. We are informed that one lady and her daughter have visited the cemetery each year, and in the same quiet manner decorated the graves of the soldiers. God bless them!

Mr. B. A. Litowich was married to Miss Julia Rothschild at Kausas City, last Sunday. The contracting parties being of the Jewish faith, the cerenony was conducted by Rabbi Epptein, of Kansas City. Five crowded cars (a special train) came to a stop at Iron Avenue bridge at nine o'clock in the morning. The Salina Sabbath schools were out in force to meet the visitors. Mr. Frank Robb acted as marshal and succeeded in getting the schools and people generally in marching order for the park. The procession was headed by the Salina Band. Arriving at the park, which was so charming in its appearance as to bring many expressions of rapture from the visitors, the pienic party divided into groups under the trees, in the shade and or the grass, and proceeded to enjoy themselves as best they could. By 11 o'clock the baskets were resorted to luncheon was spread, and from that time on for two hours little "dinner Saturday afternoon, when the Judge parties" were seen in every part of the grove. An appropriate speech of welcome was delivered by R. A. Lovitt Esq., of Salina, which was responded to by Rev. A. J. Kissell, pastor of the Lutheran church of Abilene, with good words. The children were merry all day long, and enjoyed with a relish the swings and romps under the trees. Croquet was indulged in. A base ball game was made up by parties from Abilene and Salina. There were five innings, and the result of the game was seven for the Salina boys and three for the Abilene boys. Many were the expressions of delight of our neighbors over our beautiful park, our city and their reception here. The train bore them home at 5:30 P. M. Now I am an old thresherman of twenty-five years practical experience, and I say the Rumely never has equalled the Belleville in McPherson equalled the Belleville in McPherson and Saline counties. I have nearly worn out one Belleville here, and last fall I purchased a new one of same kind, and a Harrison portable engine of you. Mr. Crane of my neighborhood had bought a Rumely thresher and engine complete, previously. I got my outfit late (in Nov.), and went over the ground after the Rumely and got all the threshing I could do until in the winter, the Rumely leaving the field clear for me by laying over. I got jobs of two good farmers who had stopped the Rumely because it wasted the grain, and others said they would have made money to have waited for the Belleville.
